COUNTY BUYS FIVE BRIDGES

CONTRACT ALSO LET FOR LUMBER AND STEEL BARS.

A TOTAL OF $18,328

Bridges to Cost $11,050, Lumber $6,000 and Bars $1,278—Program Near Completion

Contracts for $18,328 worth of bridges and bridge materials were awarded yesterday at a special meeting of the Nodaway County Court.

Included in the letting were five steel bridges to be erected in various parts of the county. In addition the court ordered enough bridge lumber and reinforcing bars to last through 1926.

The contracts were awarded after reception of competitive bids. The five bridges will cost $11,050 and will be built by the Standard Bridge Co. of Omaha, Neb., in accordance with plans on file in the offices of the county clerk and highway engineer. Workmanship and material must be satisfactory to the County Court.

Other bidders on the bridges were W. W. Randall of this city, whose bid was $11,650, and the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co., Des Moines, Ia., which submitted a bid of $12,210.

Lumber Contract Split

Two companies tied in the bidding on five carloads of standard sawed No. 1 fir bridge lumber, and the contract was divided, the Nebraska Bridge and Supply Co. of Lincoln, Neb., to furnish two cars and the Standard Bridge Co. of Omaha to furnish the other three. Both companies bid $19.50 a thousand feet.

The Pittsburgh-DesMoines Steel Co. bid $40 on the lumber, and Earl McCleave of Barnard bid $40 on southern oak lumber, instead of fir.

The lumber will cost about $1,200 a car, or $6,000 for the year's supply.

For 36,000 pounds of reinforcing bars long length, one-half inch square, the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co., was the low bidder at $3.55 per hundred pounds. The contract totals $1,278.

Other bidders on the reinforcing bars were the Standard Bridge Co., with $4.19, and the Nebraska Bridge and Supply Co., with $4.15.

Where the Bridges Will Be

The bridges are to be erected at once, but the lumber is to be sent only as ordered.

One of the bridges is to be one of the steel girder type, 50 by 14 feet, spanning what is known as Snodderly creek, about a mile north of the Burlington depot, replacing an old bridge near the Atherton farm. The new structure will cost $1,935.

Over one of the branches of Elk Horn creek, in Hughes township, four miles northeast of Graham, there will be a steel girder bridge 70 by 16 feet, to cost $2,870. It is near the William Schmidt farm.

Another Elk Horn branch will have a bridge of similar dimensions, 70 by 14 feet, but it will be of the "pony" type. It will be in Monroe township, near the Gill school, four and one-half miles east of Skidmore, and will cost $2,450.

A smaller bridge of the girder type, 45 by 14 feet, will be placed one and one-fourth miles west of Dawson, in the northwest part of the county. It will cost $1,860.

The fifth bridge will be 50 by 14 feet, spanning Dog Branch, two and one-half miles southeast of Arkoe. It will be of the steel girder type and will cost $1,935.

To Complete Program

The five bridges will practically complete the county's bridge building program, it was stated by the County Court members. There will be others requiring repairs, but the greater part of the ravages of past floods will be wiped out, and with them will go the most drastic inroads upon the county's finances.

It has been several years since the season of torrential rains which swept away so many of the county's bridges, but it was only with the beginning of 1926 that the County Court finally was able to announce that the deficit caused thereby in the road and bridge fund had been overcome. Meanwhile the bridges which were washed out, many of them frail, wooden structures, have been replaced with steel bridges expected to withstand severe strains.

Dick Goff has been critically ill at his home in Barnard for the last two weeks. His condition is unimproved.

Officers Commended in K. C. Star Story

George Pat Wright, Prosecutor, And Lowell B. Campbell, Sheriff, Are Complimented On Work.

Under the heading, "A Record in Law Enforcement," the Sunday Kansas City Star commended the work of George Pat Wright and Lowell B. Campbell, as prosecutor and sheriff of Nodaway County.

The Star had the following:

George Pat Wright, prosecuting attorney, and Lowell B. Campbell, sheriff of Nodaway County, made an enviable law enforcement record in 1925. Every person arrainged in court for violating the liquor laws was convicted. In all Prosecutor Wright submitted 113 criminal cases and obtained 113 convictions. About 60 per cent were liquor cases. Jail and penitentiary sentences aggregated 4,151 days. This record will stand up with those made by ex-governor Hadlay and Senator Reed when prosecutors in Jackson County.

ASK FUND FOR INSTRUMENTS

MUSICAL EQUIPMENT WILL BE PURCHASED.

WILL GIVE CONCERTS

First of Series of Four To Be On Afternoon Of February 14.—Discussed at C. Of C. Meeting.

The need for more and better instruments for use by organizations at the Maryville High School and the College was discussed at the Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Linville Hotel last night. Fifty-four persons were present at the meeting. Dr. Jesse Miller, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided.

L. E. Ziegler, Uel W. Lamkin and Charles R. Gardner made short talks in which they told of the needs of the musical organizations. It was pointed out that more students would avail themselves of the musical courses providing more instruments were available.

It was said that there are now 183 students taking band and orchestra work in the city and that with the present rate of progress, it will be possible to have, in another year, an orchestra here of more than 100 pieces. The difficulty is securing the non-solo and unusual instruments.

A series of four concerts is to be given in Maryville within the next few weeks. The first will be given on Sunday afternoon, February 14 and will feature the various local musical organizations, which will give the general public an opportunity to observe the high class of work done by the students.

Following considerable discussion, it was agreed that an effort should be made to raise a fund to purchase the musical instruments. More than $2,000 would be needed to make the instrument equipment complete, but it is thought that half that amount will be adequate for the present.

Before the meeting adjourned at 8:30 o'clock last night, $665 had been pledged in amounts ranging from $5 to $100.

Today, a committee has been completing the canvas and at 3 o'clock this afternoon more than $700 had been pledged, including the amount raised last night.

Titles to the instrument will be vested in the College, with the understanding that they may be used jointly by the students at the high school and College as well as the other public schools in Maryville.

The first instruments purchased will include violins, cellos, altos, trumpets, baritones and tubas.

Talks Are Given at History Club Meet

A program covering subjects of current interest in world affairs and local was given at the meeting of the History Club of the Maryville High School.

The program follows:

"American-Irish Relations"—Bonnie Campbell.

"Finds President's Enemy"—Thelma Stevenson.

Jay Caudell displayed an interesting number of muster rolls and pay roll records which were kept during the Civil War and are the property of the late John Price of Maryville.

TWO PAROLES GIVEN TODAY

GRANTED TO ROY YEAMAN AND PAT STRANGE BY COURT.

YEAMAN TERMS RIGID

James R. Bishop Goes Into County Jail and Burt Martin Is Discharged.

The congested condition in the Nodaway County jail was relieved somewhat today when paroles were granted in Circuit Court to Roy Yeaman and Pat Strange, sentenced on liquor charges.

Room for still another new prisoner was made by the release of Burt Martin, who completed his ninety-day sentence, also on a liquor charge.

Martin was granted a stay of execution on the payment of costs in his case.

One of the vacant cells was claimed by James R. Bishop, charged with writing a bogus check. He changed his plea yesterday from not guilty to guilty and was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

Strange was paroled on the usual conditions and payment of all costs. He had served three months of a six months jail sentence imposed on October 5 of last year when he pleaded guilty to possession of intoxicatin liquor. He also was fined $500 at that time.

His Second Parole.

Yeaman's parole was granted only after continued efforts in his behalf by his family and friends. He had been in court several times before his last sentence was imposed, and this is his second parole. Its terms are among the most rigid ever prescribed in the local court.

Yeaman had completed a three months sentence and since January 12 had been "serving time" on a fine of $500, which he had not paid. The parole provides that he shall pay $100 of this fine.

Among other stipulations are that he secure employment at once, that he spend all of his time at home or in company of his wife except when he is at work, and that the county officers may visit his home or place of business at any time to search for liquor without the formality of a search warrant. If he resumes his former vocation as barber, the parole conditions set forth the hours in which it shall be open and closed.

A Long Legal Battle.

The charge on which Yeaman was confined until today was possession of intoxicating liquor, and he went to jail only after a long legal resistance which lasted more than a year.

He was arraigned on October 7, 1924, and on October 25 obtained a change of venue. On December 10, he withdrew his plea of not guilty and filed a motion to quash the search warrant and sheriff's return, but on the following day this motion was overruled and a jury found him guilty. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to serve three months in the county jail.

A motion for new trial delayed the beginning of his jail term. This motion was overruled on February 11 of last year, and he filed an appeal. He failed to perfect the appeal, however, and on October 12 his appeal was dismissed and he began serving his sentence.

In recommending the parole this morning, Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright stated:

Urged by Many, Says Prosecutor.

"I have been importuned by a large number of good and substantial people to recommend a parole for Roy Yeaman, now in the Nodaway County jail for violation of the liquor law.

"I can consent to the parole of Mr. Yeaman only upon the following specific conditions:

"First: That the court in exercise of its discretion is wholly satisfied that it is proper and right to do so.

"Second: That he not again violate the law.

"Third: That he pay $100 of the fine imposed and all the costs of the case in which he was senteneed.

"Fourth: That he immediately engage in some legitimate calling or employment at a place to be approved by the court and the prosecuting attorney.

Must Stay At Home.

"Fifth: That if he engages in the business of barbering or operating a barber shop for himself that he closes said shop at 7:30 o'clock on each evening of the week except Saturday evening, when he shall close at 11 o'clock,

Striken Crews Are Making Last Fight

Life Boats Swept From Floundering Freighter And Liner Hurrying To Rescue Sailors.

New York, Jan. 26.—Fifty men aboard two crippled Belgian freighters, sinking in mid-ocean, today were making the last struggle to survive the Atlantic hurricane.

The U. S. liner, President Roosevelt, with two of its crew lost, is hurrying to the floundering freighter, Antinoe, whose life boats have been swept away and the water already is filling the engine room.

The north Germany Lloyd liner, Merman, was battling its way to the little vessel and is said to be going down about a hundred miles off Halifax.

3 MORE GRAND JURY ARRESTS

SEVEN CAPIASES ARE SERVED AT CONCEPTION.

LIQUOR AND GAMING

Cornelius Brady Charged With Four Offenses, Emery Smith Two and James Sheridan One.

Seven more of the capiases on the sixteen indictments returned by the grand jury were served yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Harve England, when he arrested Cornelius Brady, Emery Smith and James Sheridan at Conception.

All of the seven true bills were served at Conception and involve gaming and liquor offenses. Four of them were against Brady, who is charged with possessing and disposing of intoxicating liquor, gaming, setting up and keeping a gaming house and again with possessing liquor. He was released upon giving of bonds totaling $1,700.

There are two indictments against Sheridan, one charging both possessing and giving away of intoxicating liquor and the other simple possession. He was released on bond of $500 for each of the alleged offenses.

Smith is charged with gaming and was released on $300 bond.

The gaming charges against both Brady and Smith are based upon a card game alleged to have been held in May, 1925. The charge against Brady of keeping a gaming house sets forth that it was operated from September to December of last year.

One of the liquor charges against Brady alleges possession and disposition of "corn whisky" in September, 1925. The other charge is simple possession, in April, 1925. The double charge against Sheridan also alleges that he had and gave away "whisky" in September, 1925. The possession charge sets forth that he had "jake" and "jamaica ginger" in October, 1925.

This brings to nine the number of indictments on which capiases have been served since the grand jury's adjournment.

Highest Tribute for Belgium's Great Hero

National Funeral To Be Held For Cardinal Mercier At Brussels Thursday Morning.

Brussels, Jan. 26.—Belgium will pay the highest tribute within its power—a national funeral—to the memory of Cardinal Mercier.

The body of the cardinal will be brought to Brussels from Malines at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and will be met by the royal family, members of the cabinet and diplomatic corps.

King Albert and the crown prince will follow the funeral cortege on foot through the streets to the St. Gudule Church where the national ceremonies will be held. Immediately after this service, the body will be taken back to Malines where on Friday there will be a private diocesean funeral and burial in the crypt of the Malines cathedral which the cardinal served so long.

Chickens Taken From Farm Near Maryville

Charles Myers, a farmer who has been living on the paved highway south of Maryville but who is moving to a farm near Conception, reported to county officers this morning that a dozen or more chickens had been stolen during the night from his old place. The lock also was broken on the door to his residence, but nothing was missing.

MITCHELL TO GO TO AFRICA

STORMY PETREL'S RESIGNATION EXPECTED SOON.

COLONEL DISAPPOINTED

Many Commercial Organizations Bid for Services of Man Recognized As Authority.

Washington, Jan. 26.—A hunting trip to Africa will be taken by Col. William Mitchell immediately after his resignation from the army, it was learned today.

Preparations for such a trip have been quietly in progress for some time.

The announcement of Col. Mitchell's resignation, together with a statement of his plans for the future is expected tomorrow.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Col. William Mitchell's resignation from the army is expected within forty-eight hours. This, his friends said today, will be his answer to President Coolidge's action in approving his sentence of five years' suspension.

Little doubt was expressed in any quarter today but that Mitchell's resignation would be speedily accepted by the war department and just as speedily by the White House.

The Colonel had nothing to say this morning about his punishment. He appeared to be reserving his fore for one final burst at close range.

Both Mitchell and his wife appeared to be somewhat disappointed at the President's verdict but their actions did not reveal it.

Commercial air concerns already are bidding for Mitchell's services for even his enemies on the general staff admit that he is a flier and an authority on air matters.

Washington, Jan. 26.—By action of President Coolidge, William Mitchell, formerly a colonel in the army air service, passed off the commissioned roll last night for a period of five years.

The president approved the court-martial sentence imposed on him for violation of the ninety-sixth article of war, insofar as suspension from all rank and duty was concerned. He modified the total forfeiture of pay and allowances, however, to permit Mitchell to receive during his suspension half of his non-flying pay and certain living allowances "at the pleasure of the president."

Mitchell did not break the silence he has maintained since his trial began last October. There was strong intimations among his friends, however, that he would submit his resignation from the army. There is no doubt that its acceptance, "for the good of the service," would be recommended by Secretary Dwight Davis and his military advisers.

Representative Frank R. Reid of Illinois, who was chief defense counsel for Mitchell before the military court, issued a statement saying:

"They have finally 'got' Colonel Mitchell."

He attacked the "unseemingly haste" of the president in approving the sentence and declared that the modifications of "forfeiture during the pleasure of the president" was, in his opinion, the "most un-American sentence ever pronounced."

The statement gave no intimation as to what course Mitchell would take.

President Coolidge followed exactly recommendations of Secretary Davis in disposing of the case. In doing so, he was a little more lenient than the war department board of review and Major General John A. Hull, judge advocate general of the army. Both recommended modification of the forfeiture clauses of the sentence but would have left Mitchell only one-third of his non-flying pay in conformity with a general rule governing maximum fines imposed by army courts on enlisted men.

FARM BILL BY HOUSE TODAY

CO-OPERATIVE FEDERAL AID ACT PASSES, 357 TO 3.

ADMINISTRATION O. K.

President Coolidge Inaugurates Series of White House Breakfasts for Winter Today.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The House today passed the farm co-operative federal aid bill.

It would set up in the department of agriculture a division to supply co-operative organizations with information on markets, prices, products and possible surplus. Experts would be provided to assist in the organization of co-operatives among farmers.

The bill carries an appropriation of $250,000 and has been indorsed by the administration.

The vote on the bill was 357 to 3.

Washington, Jan. 26—President Coolidge inaugurated his series of White House breakfasts for the winter season this morning, bringing a dozen Republican leaders in the House around the table for a discussion of the legislative program.

Coolidge Would Make Trip Only to Father

President Will Not Accept Engagements Outside Capitol, It Is Officially Announced.

Washington, Jan. 26.—If President Coolidge leaves Washington while Congress is in session, it will be to visit his aged father at his home in Plymouth, Vt., it was said officially at the White House today.

This statement was in answer to the many invitations Mr. Coolidge has received to make out-of-town addresses.

He hardly believes it will be possible for him to visit his father on account of the stress of work occasioned by the presence here of Congress and he has said he cannot accept other engagements.

Among other places, Mr. Coolidge has been invited to visit Indianapolis and Des Moines.

Washington, Jan. 26. — President Coolidge has transferred H. Percival Dodge of Massachusetts, now minister to the Kingdom of Serbs, Creats and Slovens, to be minister to Denmark. John D. Price of New Jersey has been transferred from Denmark to the Kingdom of Serbs, Croats and Slovens.

The transfer was sent to the Senate for approval.

NO ALLIANCE WITH LEAGUE

SENATE VOTES AGAINST ANY OBLIGATIONS.

FOES WIN ROBINSON

Indiana Senator Announces He Will Oppose Court Adherence.—Coolidge Not To Interfere.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The Senate this afternoon voted eighty-nine to one against any obligation under the League of Nations as a condition for American adherence to the World Court.

This stand was taken by adopting the first Swanson resolution. The only vote against it was cast by Senator Frazier, Republican of North Dakota.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The Senate irreconcilables, fighting American adherence to the World Court, this afternoon won a new convert when Senator Arthur Robinson, Republican of Indiana, announced he would vote against the court.

"I believe the United States should never accept any obligation under the covenant of the League of Nations," Robinson said. "The question is whether we assume any obligation under the League when we sign the protocol of the court. My answer is yes."

Washington, Jan. 26.—A few hours before the Senate was to begin voting on reservations to the World Court today, President Coolidge made it plain he did not consider any necessary beyond the original Hughes reservations of three years ago.

At the same time, however, it was made plain that Mr. Coolidge had no intention of interfering in the court fight. The administration's policies on reservations will be left to the administration court leaders on the floor of the Senate, Senators Curtis of Kansas, Lenroot of Wisconsin and Pepper of Pennsylvania.

The President expressed to callers his fear that loading down the protocol with a multitude of reservations may surround America's adherence to the World Court with so many handicaps that much of the effect of American adherence will be lost.

The impression was obtained that the President had specifically in mind that reservation which permitted the Senate and not the executive to determine whether a given case of international dispute be put before the court's jurisdiction.

Such restrictive reservations, Mr. Coolidge believes, may tend to make complicated America's operation in the court.

Washington, Jan. 26.—American adherence to the World Court may be approved by the Senate before nightfall.

Pro-court and irreconcilable leaders have agreed tentatively to vote on all reservations to the protocol before adjournment, it was learned. The agreement to bring the World Court debate to a speedy end was arranged by Senators Curtis and Lenroot, court leaders, and Borah and Reed, who have been directing the fight against American adherence to the court.

With cloture adopted, the court opponents feel that little could be gained by postponing the vote by the limited debate allowed each Senator.

Before entering the agreement, the irreconcilables made a final protest against consideration of the court resolution in the absence of "any official treaty." Senator James A. Reed, Democrat of Missouri, characterized the procedure as "illegal, void, contrary to the federal Constitution and contrary to the rules of the Senate."

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER IN NODAWAY COUNTY

ALL-AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE.

An American editor, wanting to keep in closer touch with Mexican affairs, decided to subscribe for a Mexican newspaper, but didn't know how to select one. So he wrote a letter addressed blindly to "The Leading Daily Newspaper, Mexico City, Mexico," trusting that somebody down there would be intelligent enough to deliver the letter and inspire a reply. Weeks passed. Nothing doing. Mexican inefficiency! That couldn't have happened up here.

Then the editor bethought himself of the American embassy at Mexico City, eager of course to promote interchange of intelligence between the two countries, and wrote there for information. Nearly three weeks later he received a reply stating that the matter had been referred to the American consul general. No reply yet from that source. Well meaning, but inefficient, as we expect diplomatic machinery to be!

Meanwhile the perserving editor had a bridghter idea. He wrote to the Pan American Union at Washington. By return mail came a letter giving him the information he desired, with enclosures telling of available publications concerning every Latin-American relations. The next day he received a bundle of representative publications. One hundred per cent efficiency!

The incident is passed along for its academic interest and also for its practical usefulness in furthering intercourse with the Other Americans.

RADIO CONTROL.

Secretary Hoover's control of radio is questioned, and the Senate committee on interstate commerce is going to investigate him.

That is all right, probably with Mr. Hoover as with outsiders. He doesn't seem exactly "crazy about" the job. And it is a good thing anyway, for public men to be investigated, provided legislators don't spend all their time on that rather negative procedure. One-man power especially calls for frequent observation to make sure that it isn't abused.

There is talk of a commission to control the radio situation.

The really interesting thing in this case, however, is the motive. Political leaders are said to be afraid that the Secretary of Commerce will use his influence with radio fans to boost him for the presidency.

That matter will probably take care of itself when the time comes. Meanwhile it might be well if some of the commissions now functioning at Washington could be replaced by one-man power. There is nothing like concentrating authority in a single executive—if he's an able one—to get things done in a field where action, not talk, is wanted.

FEWER MEN AND MORE MAN-POWER.

Is labor inefficient? Here are some remarkable figures on the subject, submitted by the Federal Reserve Board:

American factories last year produced 5 per cent more output than in the record year of 1923, and did it with fewer men. They even employed fewer men in 1925 than in 1919, and the product was 30 per cent more.

Bankers will not be suspected of misrepresenting in such a case as this. Clearly if labor was slacking during the war and the boom period afterward, it is doing better now.

Employers are doing better, too, using improved methods and improved machinery. Altogether, there doesn't seem to be any reason for doubting that American industry can hold its own.

What is so rare as a June day in January.

Fools, whether old fools or young fools, are fools just the same.

Political Foes Live Together in Harmony

Leaders of Both Parties Generally "Get Together" On Some Questions, As World Court Proposal.

By Charles P. Stewart
NEA Service Writer.

Washington—"Oh, how blessed it is for the brethren to dwell together in harmony."

Representative George Huddleston of Alabama was talking about the Republicans and Democrats in Congress. As he sees it, the two parties are just alike. Every time anything really important comes up, he says they get together on it.

"Oh, how I love these eras of amity," he adds. "But," as an afterthought, "I wonder whether they are going to produce any good results for the country."

So it appears that Congressman Huddleston was sarcastic when he said, "How blessed it is for brethren to live together in harmony."

He was taking a crack at the "opposition party" management in Congress for not being genuine opposition. Nominally Huddleston is himself of the opposition—a Democrat. But he acts a lot like an insurgent, just as the Wisconsin representatives are insurgent Republicans.

He professes, however, to be a regular.

That is to say, you can consider him a regular if this description fits one:

"Oh, yes, he confesses, "I wear the party yoke.

"I put it on my shoulders and I groan and I grunt and I go forward and lean against my fellow ox, for of course I am an ox when I wear a yoke.

"I wear the yoke of party regularity as best I can, but let me say that it is not a case in which the galled jade doesn't wince. I cry aloud. I am not the captain of my soul.

"I am compelled to be reasonably regular but I am no more regular than I have to be."

Guilty Consciences Enriched Treasury $5,241.31 in 1925

Washington, Jan. 26.—Guilty consciences of men and women, who some time during their lives defrauded the government resulted in the "conscience fund" at the treausry department being enriched $5,241.31 last year.

Since 1811 persons have been contributing to the conscience fund until now it totals more than $560,000, it was learned today. The sums received as listed on the books as "money received from persons unknown" and the currency becomes part of the general treasury fund.

Usually the contributions are sent by persons who desire to make restitution to the government for some act they do not now consider ehtical. Letters accompany the donations are anonymous and the contributions are in case, with very few exceptions, treasury officials said.

The smallest conscience fund contribution received by the treasury was a one cent stamp. A letter accompanied the contribution explaining that the donor "owed" more but was paying to the full extent of his ability.

One conscience stricken person sent $30,000 to the treasury. Secretary Mel received a package of $100 bills, wrapped in yellow paper. A letter of explanatoin was separate. The person said he cheated the government out of $15,000, and that he was making restitution with full interest.

and that he absent himself therefrom on the first day of the week, to wit: Sunday, and that he be in his home at not more than one hour after such shop is closed and not leave his home except in company with his wife for any purpose until such time as is proper to return to his shop or place of business for opening on the following day and not more than 45 minutes before the time for such opening. That if he engages in the employment of someone else, he be in his home at not more than 45 minutes after his duties in such employment are discharged and remain at home, unless accompanied by his wife, on business or to enjoy some harmless amusement, picture show or church until within one hour of such time as he is required to return to the place of his employment for the discharge of his duties.

Can Search Without Warrant.

"Sixth: That during the period of his parole he waive the necessity of a search warrant and agree that the sheriff and such of his deputies as he may name may be authorized at any time to search his place of business or his home for intoxicating liquor.

"Seventh: That he not associated at any time with immoral persons or with persons engaged in the unlawful handling of intoxicating liquor or with persons addicted to the use of intoxicants and that he will at no time loiter around or be at places of ill repute or where liquors are being handled."

To all of these conditions Yeaman agreed in writing.

Another Sentence Pending.

Another sentence is hanging over Yeaman on a city charge on which he was convicted in police court and which he appealed to Circuit Court on January 12 of last year. On April 16 he was convicted in Circuit Court also and was fined $500 and sentenced to six months in the city jail. This sentence he appealed to the Kansas City Court of Appeals, where it is awaiting review.

Several other times Yeaman has been in court. On two of these occasions he faced state liquor charges, once on March 6, 1925, and once on October 5. Both were nolle prossed on October 12.

Back in 1915, Yeaman was arrested on charges of gaming and permitting gaming on his premises. To the latter charge he pleaded guilty on January 20, 1916, and was fined $300. Unable to pay his fine, he served eight days in the county jail, after which he was paroled on payment of $34 of his fine and on certain conditions, among which was one requiring him to keep away from intoxicating liquor.

On a city case about the same time, he was convicted in police court and appealed to Circuit Court, where a $10 fine was agreed on.

Still another state case, on June 4, 1923, charged Yeaman with illegal voting. The case was nolle prossed.

Quick Way to End Dangerous Cough

Why let a dangerous cough hang on when you can, through a simple treatment, get speedy relief and often break it up completely in 24 hours?

This treatment is based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. So the worst cough quickly disappears.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

Automobile Stolen; Found This Morning

Car Driven by John Dooley, High School Student, Is Abandoned After Being Stripped.

An automobile stolen last night while its driver, John Dooley, Jr., a Maryville High School student, was attending basketball practice there, was located this morning in what is known as Herron lane, east of town.

The car had been stripped of its more valuable and removable parts. It was a 1921 model but had new tires. There are no clues to the thief.

County officers stated today that they would appreciate it and that apprehension of guilty persons would be more likely if citizens would report promptly any abondoned cars on country roads.

Champion Steers Are Bought by Railroad

Burlington Purchases Select Stock For Serving In Dining Cars On Line.

The choicest steaks and roasts of beef which the market affords are to be served in the dining cars of the Burlington Railroad as the result of its purchase on January 20, of fifteen head of the Grand Champion Carload of fat steers, exhibited at the National Western Stock Show in Denver.

These pure bred Angus, long fed yearlings, were bred in Iowa and fed by A. N. Schmidt, President of the Tarkio Molasses Feed Company, Kansas City, Mo. The average weight was 1,094 pounds at $19.75 per hundred, sold by the John Clay Company and purchased by A. E. White, Superintendent of Commissary for the Burlington Railroad, making a total of $3,240.98 worth of prize beef to be served to dining car patrons on the Burlington lines.

At the same sale, Robert Rice, Vice-President of the Colorado and Southern Railway, purchased through Swift and Company, the Grand Champion steer, a pure bred Angus yearling, bred and fed by the University of Nebraska; the weight of this prize steer was 1,190 pounds at one dollar a pound.

These purchases of prize beef are in keeping with the policy of these railroads to provide the best the market affords for dining car patrons, as well as to encourage the production of pure bred live stock in territory tributary to their lines. The Burlington and the Colorado and Southern Railroads co-operated with Colorado breeders in 1923 in the free transportation of twenty-nine pure bred bulls and twenty-nine pure bred boars, valued at $10,000 which were exchanged in even trade at twenty-nine points in Colorado for scrub sires which sold for $589 on the Denver market. The Burlington assisted Nebraska breeders in 1924 by transporting $6,000 worth of pure bred sires which were exchanged at thirty-one points in Nebraska for scrubs which brought $609 on the Omaha market. In recent checks on results of these campaigns, breeders in Colorado and Nebraska report marked improvement in quality of live stock in their communities.

Large Audience Hears Orchestra Last Night

"How To Be Happy Though Married," Musical Romance, Is Pleasing—May Be Repeated Soon.

A musical romance, "How To Be Happy Tho Married," presented under the auspices of the Women's Council and the Berean Class of the First Christian Church, with music by the renowned Kitchen Cabinet Orchestra, pleased a large audience at the Christian Church last night.

The story was woven about the courtship and marriage of Annie Laurie and Robin Adair and was interspersed with a number of old familiar songs, descriptive of experiences during courtship and married life of the typical man and woman.

Mrs. John G. Mutz directed the orchestra with a dish mop and the instrumentations were by food grinders, egg beaters, dish pans, kettles, funnels and the other necessary utensils of the housekeeper.

The soloists were well received and were presented with numerous bouquets by their admirers.

The play was directed by Mrs. R. E. Snodgrass and will probably be repeated in the near future. A request has also come from the Christian Church at Pickering for the program to be given there.

Mrs. Mutz assisted Mrs. Snodgrass in the direction of the play and arrangements.

What Jerry Says

What a wonderful thing is a fellow's good friend,
On whom with confidence you can depend.
The one who has traveled through fire with you;
Been weighed in a balance, and always found true.

You are sitting at home with the grip or the flu,
Feeling so dreary, so lonesome and blue;
You don't want to live, and you don't want to die.
You couldn't near smile, If you wanted to try.

Then, all of a sudden the front doorbell rings.
What a thrill of expectancy a little thing brings;
And in comes the friend you like best of all—
She heard you were sick, and thought she would call.

She sits down beside you, Takes you by the hand,
With a look in her eye that you understand.
What a wonderful change comes over our ills;
She has done us more good than tonics and pills.

The blood starts tingling again in our veins.
Gone is our fever, our aches and our pains.
The minute she came, we began then to mend—
Oh! what a great blessing is a good friend.

Commercial Airplane Industry in U. S. High

More Mail Carried and More Goods Moved Proportionately Than in Any Other Country.

Washington, Jan. 26 (United Press).—Airplanes in the United States are now carrying more mail and moving more goods in proportion to population than any other country in the world, according to a commerce department report today.

Despite widespread granting of subsidies to commercial aviation by foreign governments, the people of the United States are fast adapting airplanes to various lines of industry with the result that this country civil aviation here is making unprecedented gains without government aid or control.

The high factor of safety with which planes have proven able to transport goods is attributed by the department as a deciding feature in installing confidence in business men generally and has been a direct cause for increased uses of planes in commerce.

A survey by the department of the safety of mails and goods transported by air discloses a record of 159,843,096 letters carried by air during the three years from January 1922 to December, 1924. During this period only 5,000 letters were lost or destroyed—about one-half of the percentage loss of letters of registered packages carried by rail.

To Tell of Weakness in Dry Enforcement

General Andrews Will Make Series of Recommendations for Improvement in Prohibition Department

Washington, Jan. 26.—Amazing evidence of weakness in prohibition enforcement methods will be submitted to Congress soon by General Lincoln C. Andrews, dry czar, with a series of recommendations for reinforcing the government's fight against the rum traffic, it was learned today.

The prohibition field marshal is expected to appear in person before the Congressional committee.

Andrews, who is dissatisfied with the situation in several districts, has stated he will resign unless the next twelve months bring about a radical improvement and a stronger public sentiment toward whole-hearted enforcement.

ALBERT KUCHS IS 40 TODAY

MARYVILLE JEWELER IS SPENDING DAY AT WORK.

MUSIC IS HIS HOBBY

Managed Empire Theater for Twenty-Four Years.—Heads Bill-Posting Company.

Albert Kuchs is 40 today.

The senior member of Kuchs Bros., jewelers, is spending the day at work. The only departure from his usual routine was that he was at his store earlier, if anything, this morning.

Mr. Kuchs has been a Maryville jeweler since 1916, when he, with his brother, Paul, bought the stock of H. T. Crane. It was then that Mr. Kuchs divided his time between the jewelry store and the Empire Theatre, of which he was manager.

ALBERT KUCHS.
Maryville jeweler who is celebrating his fortieth birthday today.

He went into the theater business twenty-four years ago, when his father purchased the Empire.

For fifteen years, Mr. Kuchs has been head of the bill-posting company which bears his name. Last July, he and his brother bought the Nocomo Advertising Co., operative in thirteen different towns in Missouri and Iowa.

Mr. Kuchs was born in Maryville. He attended the public schools here and completed three years in the Maryville High School. When attending this institution, he was a member of one of its first football teams.

Mr. Kuchs is one of Maryville's leading sport fans. When possible he accompanies both the High School and Teachers College teams on their trips, and he is a regular attendant at all home games and track meets.

Even while Mr. Kuchs was manager of the Empire Theatre, he took an interest in dramatic productions at the State Teachers College. For them, as well as for all other reserved-seat attractions, he has handled the seating and has donated his services in behalf of the down-town seat sales.

One of Mr. Kuchs' hobbies is music. When in high school, he was one of the organizers and a cornet player in the Boys' Band, and now he allows certain musicians around town to play in the room above his store.

He has been actively connected in Masonic and Elks circles, and twenty years ago was one of the organizers of the Copus Club, an organization of Maryville young men.

Mr. Kuchs is the older son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kuchs, long-time residents of Maryville.

Fishing's Good in Texas

A party of anglers from Fort Worth, Tex., made what they believe a record catch of fish when they dropped their lines off the Sabine light in the Gulf of Mexico. They landed 14 "warsaw" fish, a variety of deep sea bass, weighing a total of 2300 pounds. Part of their haul is shown above.

President Is Fast Fading as Leader in Life of Society

Washington, Jan. 26.—The president of the United States and the first lady of the land are fast fading as social figures. Those esteemed personages, a century ago the criterion of all social life in the capitol, whose wims dictated formal customs and whose favor created social arbiter overnight, are now nothing more than dim figures in salon gossip.

Little by little the social position of the president fell away as the business side of the official life expanded. The Roosevelt regime saw the last of the really important functions at the White House. President Taft was a home-loving quiet man, continually immersed with the intricacies of his job. President Wilson was continually beset with international problems. President Harding gathered warm friends about him but shied at formal activities where he might have to discuss abstract subjects with frigid dowagers.

President and Mrs. Coolidge have never cared for the social world. Their friends have always been leaders in business circles and they had a difficult time adjusting their conversation and views to the leisure-loving social peers and peeresses of the capital. So they solved their problem by cutting down the number of functions at 1600 Pennsylvania avenue. When they entertain, they invite their old friends in New England or the president's advisers in the commercial world.

It is now extremely seldom that the president or the first lady leave the White House. Once, a hundred drawing rooms were honored by the distinguished couple in a season. Now a house where the president has entered becomes a landmark for tourists.

Missouri Has Year of Freakish Weather

State Subject To Every Brand, From Hot to Cold, During 1925, According To Annual Report.

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 26.—While the annual mean values of the principal weather elements—temperature, precipitation, sunshine and wind—did not differ markedly in Missouri last year from the respective normals, the year did provide about every brand of weather, and at times some of the most freakish and abnormal conditions George Reeder, government meteorolgist here, declared in a statement.

Probably the most outstanding features of the weather in the state last year, Mr. Reeder said, were the ice-covered fields of January, the freaky conditions of May, the tempermental mid-summer month of July, the hot and wet September, and the cold and wet October. The first four months of the year, notwithstanding some rather bitter cold spells, was long on warmth and short on moisture, the statement said.

"March and April were mainly favorable for the farmer, the statement continued. "May was a freaky month, one in which winter, spring and summer all had a part; and one in which seemingly the coal man, the iceman and the lawnmower were in conbine, for they were all in demand.

"With respect to extremes, the period from May 21 to 25 was the most remarkable. From the 21st to the 23rd, excessive heat prevailed, with some record breaking temperatures for the season. The warm wave quickly gave place to a cold wave, which was attended by record-breaking minimum temperatures and damaging frosts on the 25th, the latest spring freeze in years.

"July possessed the unusual temperamental qualities. The first part was of pleasant coolness. Rainfall was lacking somewhat and drought effects began to show.

"September was one of the warmest on record. The first ten days of that month made up an outstanding hot period, regardless of months.

"October was the coldest and most disagreeable in many years from the side of personal comfort and the most unfavorable from the viewpoint of the farmer. At the end of July the yearly rainfall was less than normal. From the middle of September to the middle of November, the farmer had a hard time owing to frequent heavy rains.

"December was colder and drier than normal, but departures were relatively moderate. Though the month averaged more than two degrees colder than normal, it was more than three degrees warmer than last December.

"The most noticeable precipitation of the month was on the fourth. A general rain began on the third, changing into a severe snowstorm on the fourth. In most of the central-north counties, 10 to 24 inches fell in less than 24 hours. Drifts of four feet and more were not uncommon. Railway trains were much behind schedule and public highway traffic was stopped for a day or two.

"During the last part of the month, frozen ground favored corn gathering. Winter wheat made little growth; the early sown kept fair to good color, but the late sown looked rather poor and thin."

More energy will increase your earning ability

IT is the red blooded people who win success in this world! Red blood gives men and women the vitality—the energy—the strength and the activity to earn what they deserve!

Nobody can do justice to themselves when they are suffering for want of rich, red blood. It is this impoverished condition of the blood that causes so many failures in life. There's no place at the top for the weakling—the men and women with poor, weak blood.

Build up your blood! Get in the red-blooded class—and get the rewards you deserve. S. S. S. will do it for you! S. S. S. helps Nature build millions of red-blood-cells!

S. S. S. sends rich, red blood tingling to every fibre of your body and every pore of your skin. You are fairly radiant with energy, vim and vitality.

You'll look like success, too! The rich, red blood that S. S. S. helps Nature build for you will clear your skin of any ugly blemishes—your eyes will sparkle with enthusiasm — firm, solid flesh will round out your figure—strength and power will come to weak, flabby muscles.

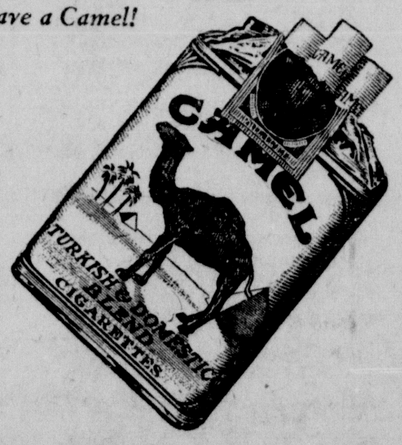
When the most glamourous picture is over—and you come outside to the bright lights and the brighter laughter of friends —have a Camel!

WHEN the exciting scenes are over. And you leave the great theatre thrilled at what you've seen. When, as the organ peals forth its rolling music, you come outside with jovial, laughing friends—have a Camel!

For nothing else on earth could be so refreshing among the great white lights as Camel. Camel adds of its own bright goodness to the enjoyment of every pleasing scene. Camel is the hale friend and companion for eventful days and carefree evenings. Here is something worth writing in words of gold: "Camels never tire the taste, or leave a cigaretty after-taste, no matter how freely you smoke them." And what's more, you can't buy choicer tobaccos or more perfect blending, no matter how much you pay.

So, this night as you leave for the brilliant scenes. And when the big show is finished and you've seen life in its tense and purposeful moments—know then the mellowest fragrance that ever came from a cigarette.

Have a Camel!



No other cigarette in the world is like Camels. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The Camel blend is the triumph of expert blenders. Even the Camel cigarette paper is the finest—made especially in France. Into this one brand of cigarettes is concentrated the experience and skill of the largest tobacco organization in the world.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

New Trial Is Asked in Booth-Job Case

A motion for new trial was filed in circuit court yesterday in the damage suit of Earl Booth against William Job, Nodaway County representative. Booth sued for $500 as the result of an automobile accident, but a jury refused damages.

In the suit of Wesley Huff to revive judgment against Ellen C. James and Fred C. James, the two defendants defaulted and a jury was waived. The judgment was then revived, for $179.95 attorney fees of $25 and costs of $16, originally given on Sept. 29, 1917 in favor of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Elmo but later assigned to Huff.

NEWS FROM MISSOURI CITIES AND TOWNS

Charleston, Mo., Jan. 22.—The question of allowing a married person to attend the public school of Charleston is to be decided in circuit court next month by Judge Riley.

Frank D. Lair, prominent Charleston business man, has filed an injunction suit to force the members of the school to allow his daughter, Mrs. Emily Lair Mattingly, a senior in the high school, to attend classes. Previously the board of education had made a ruling that married people would not be allowed to attend school here.

Mrs. Mattingly is the wife of Herman Mattingly, young business man to whom she was married on December 30, last. Immediately after the holidays when she returned to the school she was notified of the board's ruling and immediately her father entered suit asking for a temporary injunction restraining the board from enforcing the ruling.

Application for the temporary writ was heard by the county court and granted but the school board will carry the case into circuit. There, a decision either way will result in an appeal to the state supreme court, it is thought.

Mrs. Mattingly would be graduated from high school in May and if a decision is unfavorable to her she will be put out of school for more than a year before the supreme court could pass on an appeal.

The case is attracting state wide interest. School officials at Jefferson City say that no similar ruling has come to their attention and there is no precedent.

This injunction suit is directed against J. H. Harty, superintendent of schools, J. M. Haw, Scott Alexander, O. W. Joslyn, George U. Shelby, L. C. Marshall and G. L. Pemberton, members of the board.

PLAN VOTE ON SCHOOL FUND

BAKER'S PROPOSAL INCORPORATED IN AMENDMENT.

WILL RAISE $17,000,000

Would Make Teachers Colleges Wholly Independent, E. L. Hendrick of Warrensburg Says.

Jefferson City, Jan. 26.—The voters of Missouri will be asked to adopt a constitutional amendment next November, which will incorporate Governor Baker's proposal for raising funds for the schools of Missouri.

This was decided today by the special committee called into conference by the governor. The committee indorsed the governor's proposal and this afternoon will decide what means to use in raising funds to circulate the petitions to have the amendment placed on the ballot in November.

The proposal will give the school funds the following taxes:

A 10 per cent tax on all tobaccos.
A 10 per cent amusement tax.
The present inheritance tax.
The present foreign insurance tax.

It is thought probable that the Baker proposal will give about $17,000,000 for the maintenance of the educational system. Sixty per cent of this will go to the public schools and 40 per cent to the higher educational institutions.

Practically all of the higher educational institutions of the state were represented at the meeting. Among them was President E. L. Hendricks of the State Teachers College at Warrensburg. He said adoption of the proposal would make the teachers colleges wholly independent.

Dr. Stratton D. Brooks of the University of Missouri and R. T. Wood of Springfield, president of the state federation of labor, were in attendance.

Writer of Two Bad Checks Is Held

Man Giving Name of Alfred Peterson Is Held, Together With Woman Claiming To Be Wife.

A man who gave his name as Alfred Peterson was held today after he had given a worthless check to one Maryville firm and had attempted to cash another.

Peterson first appeared at the J. C. Penney store and wrote a check on the Arkoe State Bank for $23.50, signing it "A. R. Tapp." When the manager of the store called the bank, however, he was told that the check was worthless and Peterson was found and required to return the money.

Meanwhile, however, he wrote a similar check at the Maryville Drug Co., and received $4.50. When the proprietors of this store heard of the first incident, they also started in pursuit of Peterson and he was found, in company with a woman claiming to be his wife, walking near the intersection of the Wabash and Burlington railroads. Both are being held by the officers.

Those in the pursuing party were Bernard Dougan, chief of police, B. E. Condon, and Will Irwin.

UNDER CAPITOL DOME

Senator Borah's Family Tree.

THE GENTLE ART OF POLITICS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

BY PAUL R. MALLON.

(United Press Staff Correspondent).

Washington, Jan. 26.—The candidacy of Senator George Wharton Pepper to succeed himself in Pennsylvania has stirred up a political situation of national significance.

Involved in the conflict are the alleged aspirations of a prospective presidential candidate, the authority of a cabinet member over a wing of the Republican party and the issue of prohibition.

Pepper's friends profess to believe that Governor Gifford Pinchot is attempting to round up the remnants of the old Roosevelt Bull Moose movement in which he was so prominently identified, with one eye on the White House and the other on Pepper's seat in the senate. Pinchot, it is true, has recently been making a number of speeches through the country, particularly in the farming west, where he is still remembered as the man who started the Ballinger affair.

Thus far Pinchot has not yet come out either as a senatorial or presidential candidate. But he has long been an opponent of Pepper, and it is felt here that he would enter the race if for instance Rep. Vare, Republican Pennsylvania and who has formidable strength in the eastern part of the state should consent to run and thereby split Pepper's vote.

Vares candidacy, it is believed, would take the wet vote away from Pepper and permit Pinchot and Pepper to scramble for the drys in a community where politics thrives or dies upon the prohibition issue.

The primaries are the coming March 18 when the Republican candidate will be chosen. But a lot will happen before then that will decide whether Pepper, Pinchot or Vare, will take up the reins of the eastern half of the state in which Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is supposed to control the party.

Pepper's friends are expecting that Mellon will do what he did in the recent Pittsburgh mayoralty contest—let a bad situation drag along until it seems thoroughly entangled and then step in and point his finger at his man and have him elected.

The recent rebellion of Senator David Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, against appointments made by President Coolidge to the Interstate Commerce Commission did not have the significance of a break with the chief executive that some interpreted, in the opinion of Reed's friends here.

The president named Thomas F. Woodlock, New York and Richard V. Taylor, Mobile, the latter to satisfy previous objections from southern senators who had protested they needed representation on the commission.

Reed announced his opposition to the candidates on the ground that Pennsylvania should have representation on the commission. The Pennsylvania railroad is one of the largest industries in his state. But Reed didn't have anyone available for the job from his state. The state public utilities commission is so closely divided that if he should remove one of his school of thought to take an Interstate Commerce Commission post it would permit his opponent Gov. Pinchot to appoint a man which would give Pinchot domination over the commission.

With Reed aroused, and southern senators still dissatisfied regardless of the naming of Taylor, western senators have set up a cry that the farmers needed a post on the commission, thereby creating another political problem for Mr. Coolidge to solve.

Restores Life to Patient While on Operating Table

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 26.—How Dr. Theron Ware, Cleveland surgeon, restored life to a patient on the operating table became known today. Earl F. Hauserman was the patient.

He was undergoing an operation for appendicitis when, to all appearances, his heart ceased to beat.

"There is one chance in a million," Dr. Ware told his assistants. "We will take it."

With a knife, he made an incision in the heart deftly, massaged it gently, and slowly it began beating again and finally returned to normal.

Hauserman did not learn of his "death" until members of his family came to take him home.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Lucy Woods West in testifying before Circuit Judge Pearce in her suit for divorce from William West stated that her husband told her when she refused to kiss him that "some girls begged him for kisses."

Her refusal to kiss her husband, she said, followed his refusal of her pleas to get her a drink of water while she was lying sick in a bed. The real reason for the husband refusing her request, she said, was the fact that he was in another room "feeding candy to a pretty neighbor who was sitting on his lap."

Mrs. West stated that from the time they were married in September, 1919, until they separated in March, 1925, "he spent most of his time drinking and gambling." She said her husband was so jealous he wouldn't let her nurse her own parents because he was jealous of the doctor on the case.

One is a good Jersey, coming 5; the other a good red Shorthorn, coming 8 years old. Both of these cows are excellent milkers, and I personally recommend them to be extra good.

HOGS—10 head of gilts, to farrow in March. Eight of these are purebred Spotted Poland-Chinas, from the John Gates strain, Parnell, vaccinated and should be immune. 1 white sow; 1 black and red sow.

IMPLEMENTS—John Deere corn planter, improved; 16 inch walking plow, used one season; 1 horse top buggy and pole; Bailor riding one-row cultivator, nearly new; walking John Deere cultivator, spring trip; walking lister and drill combined; walking drill, nearly new; disc harrow, good condition; 12-foot harrow; Standard mower, 6-ft. cut, two sickles, good shape; new corn sheller, one-hole; good wagon with Charter Oak box, nearly new; hay rack; 3 sets of harness, collars; stalk cutter; wire corn crib; 18 steel chicken coops; hog troughs; bob-sled; feed bunk; 2 incubators; 1 Old Trusty, 1 Iron Clad, used three years. About 15 to 20 bushels of good seed corn, some corn in crib. About nine tons of hay, timothy and clover, about half and half. Good stock field and run of pasture with plenty of water until last day of February. Many other articles too numerous to mention.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Wheat led corn and oats to substantial price gains on the Chicago Board of Trade today.

Foreign news which gave the market its upward start at the opening became more and more bullish as the day advanced and to this was added the strengthening influence of better and more general domestic demand. Traders answered these factors with a flood of buying orders and wheat at the peak set a new high mark on the present movement, $1.74⅝.

Light receipts gave corn independent strength but most of it was borrowed from the wheat pit. The cash market was strong.

Oats continued uninteresting to traders throughout the day but what sales were recorded showed the influence of higher wheat prices and fractional advances were scored.

Provisions were uneven on a slim market.

Butter Market Improved.

The better condition noted in the butter market, as reported in our previous Review, was further extended during the past week and conditions are even more favorable today.

The Chicago market on 90 score standards is quoted at 43¾ cents, as compared with 42 cents a week ago. At New York the advance on extras has been more marked, 92 score quoted at 46 cents, compared with 43½ cents, the quotation on January 18.

There has been a slight falling off in receipts of butter at Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia, although the make in creameries is reported a little heavier. Probably this can be explained by the greater use of butter in the producing sections.

Most of the foreign butter arriving in New York is being placed in storage in bond, and will move out only when markets advance to a parity with foreign markets, plus a duty of 8 cents per pound.

Prices on butterfat throughout the country generally reflect the better markets ruling on butter.

Live poultry receipts at New York last week were large considering the requirements, reporting up to 173 cars, with 55 cars carried over from the previous week. This supply forced the quotations to 30 cents in New York for live fowl.

Receipts of dressed poultry show little change from the previous week at the four leading markets of the country. At Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia the prices fairly sustained with the exception of signs of little accumulation of fresh fowl; the selling prices may have to be reduced to keep the stocks moving.

Supply of fresh chickens is very light and some stock is being withdrawn from the freezers to take care of current requirements.

Importations of poultry at New York last week were: 1,659 boxes Hungarian broilers from London; 295 boxes French poulry from Havre and London; 371 boxes Irish turkeys from Liverpool and London; 2,859 boxes poultry from Hamburg.

Two More Games and Teachers College Kittycats Will Be No More

KITTYCATS TO PLAY CAMERON

ONLY AWAY-FROM-HOME GAME FOR LOCALS SATURDAY.

SEEM SURE TO WIN

Return Game to Be Played Here February 20.—Will Be Swan Song.

The State Teachers College girls' basketball team, the Kittycats, will open and close its away-from-home basketball season at Cameron Saturday night, when the Missouri Wesleyany College sextet will be met in the first of a home-and-home series.

A new ruling at the College does away with intercollegiate girls' basketball after this year. So this will be the last time that the Kittycats, famous and undefeated for five years, will appear away from home.

On February 20, the Missouri Wesleyan sextet will appear in Maryville. At this time the Kittycats will sing their swan song. They will make one last appearance and then will hang up their suits forever.

Unless Missouri Wesleyan has an exceptionally strong and stalwart team the Kittycats seem certain of having another victorious season. Fortified with Bruckner, mainstay of the team for two years, the locals will be hard to beat. All that Miss Helen Manley, the coach, will have to do is develop five other players who can get the ball to this girl from Gower, and the rest will be easy. In all her playing, Bruckner has never met a guard over whom she did not tower and in spite of whom she could not score.

Miss Manley can start an entire team of veterans in the game Saturday night. Along with Bruckner at forward, she has Mapel, who has three stripes to her credit. In the centers, she has Todd and New, and at the guards are the old dependables, Cook and Kennedy.

For the last two weeks the Kittycats have been practicing in a matter-of-fact fashion. This week they are at it in earnest. Last night the coach had her forwards at work, and this afternoon the whole squad took a strenuous work-out.

Miss Manley will likely take her full squad of nine to Cameron. The trip will start at 7:42 o'clock Saturday morning, and the cagers will return Sunday, either on the bus or on the night train.

San Francisco Plans Continuous Baseball

New $1,000,000 Park and Purchase of Vernon Coast League Club Are Possibilities.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—Continuous baseball for San Francisco and a new million-dollar baseball park are two of the sports possibilities for 1926.

Negotiations underway for months promise to settle territorial problems of years' standing.

The consummation of the negotiations will involve a switch of two Pacific Coast League baseball teams.

The Vernon club now located in Los Angeles will be purchased by San Franciscans, whose identity has been closely guarded and moved here, and the Salt Lake club will be moved to Los Angeles.

Removal of the Vernon club to San Francisco will iron out a troublesome territorial problem in the southern city and removal of the Salt Lake club will put an end to a financial problem which has kept the Coast League magnates on edge for some time.

Ed Maier, owner of the Vernon club, is at outs with William Wrigley, owner of the Los Angeles club. Wrigley has completed a magnificant new baseball park, but has ultimatumed that Maier's club cannot occupy it while the Los Angeles team is on the road. But William Lane, owner of the Salt Lake club, and Wrigley are friends, and Wrigley would be glad to share his new park with Lane's club.

San Francisco capital is reported to have agreed to pay Maier $250,000 for his club. The San Francisco magnates are anxious for continuous baseball and as soon as a second club in San Francisco is assured and their territorial rights have been financially recognized, they will start construction of their new million-dollar park, a site for which has already been purchased.

Aggies Bring Interest to Valley Wrestling

Grappling Has Long Been a Favorite Sport at Infant School of Conference.

Lincoln, Nebr., Jan. 26.—(United Press)—Entrance of the Oklahoma Aggies into Missouri Valley conference sports promises a revival of interest in wrestling among the conference schools.

For many years Ames has been the outstanding exponent of the mat game in the valley and seldom did another school produce grapplers able to cope with the Ames matmen. However, the wrestling game has been an outstanding favorite with the Oklahoma Aggies for many years and just last year the national A. A. U. wrestling tournament was held at the Oklahoma school.

Dr. R. G. Clapp, Nebraska wrestling coach, predicts the present wrestling season will bring revival of interest in the game. Dr. Clapp has used several veteran wrestlers as the nucleus of his 1925 squad. Nebraska grapplers open the season here this Saturday in a dual meet with the Kansas Aggies. The Wildcats have already defeated the Kansas City Y. M. C. A. grappling eam as a season opener.

Coach Ed Gallagher of the Oklahoma Aggies has five national amateur wrestling champions, two ex-champions and several others who have defeated Missouri Valley conference champions and others holding southwestern titles, as a nucleus for this season's team.

Oklahoma will be well represented on the mat, Coach Leigh Wallace of Oklahoma reporting that he has 24 men trying out for the seven places on the Sooner squad. The Sooners will get their first real test when they meet Ames February 4.

WELL-MERITED SUCCESS

A distinguished citizen, honored politically and professionally, Dr. R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, made a success few have equalled. COMMENTS ON THIS, AND VIEWS ON THAT

The Kittycats of the State Teachers College are going to die, but they're going to die kickin'. Because of a school ruling, there will likely be no more intercollegiate girls athletics at the College after this year. And the schedule this year is far from imposing.

Saturday night the Kittycats take their lone trip of the season, to Cameron, where they meet the Missouri Wesleyan sextet. Then, on February 20, Cameron comes here for a return game.

"That's all there is. There ain't no more." After that, there will be no more Kittycats. The team which has not lost a game for five years will be a thing of the past.

In the place of this famous cage combination, a new women's athletic program has been instituted. It will give more girls an opportunity to participate than the old form, where only basketball was played. In the future there will be a half-dozen or more sports, but none of them intercollegiate.

The Kirksville Daily Express had the following to say for the local Bearcats in their game Saturday night with the Osteopaths:

"A point for each of the five minutes required to play off a 32-all tie, cost the Rams their first home game yesterday evening. The cagers from Maryville took a game which they deserved. The quintet worked like a machine. Accurate passing and quick passing spelled victory for them in the end."

And of the game with the Kirksville Teachers Friday night, it said:

"The Bearcats were hard fighters and good sports, and gave considerable opposition until the last."

The Chillicothe High School boys basketball team, which met defeat here Friday night at the hands of the Spoofhounds, lost to the Albany High team Saturday night on the Albany court by a score of 22-16. The margin of the Spoofhound victory was 26-8, which would indicate that the Maryville team is much superior to the Albany quintet, despite an early season defeat.

"Coach Ransdell and the boys appreciate the courtesies shown by the Albany and Maryville fans and teams," says the Chillicothe Tribune.

From an inside viewpoint, probably one by the most worth-while athletic enterprises at the State Teachers College is the intramural basketball tournament which is being played between eight teams of boys.

This is beneficial because it brings some sixty-five or seventy boys into athletics which would not otherwise be the case.

Considerable interest is being attracted by the tournament, and sometimes as many as 150 spectators have been at the gymnasium on the nights when games are played.

"Strangler" Too Much For the Big Indian

Mondt Wins in Straight Falls From Eveko in Kansas City Last Night.

Ed ("Strangler") Lewis, claimant to the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, last night in Kansas City defeated the big Sioux Indian, Jim Clinkstock. He threw him in straight falls, each obtained with a headlock.

The first fall required 44 minutes and 34 seconds, while the second came in 3 minutes and 5 seconds.

"Toots" Mondt, former cowpuncher, won from John Eveko, the Slav, in two falls, after he had taken the count from a right uppercut.

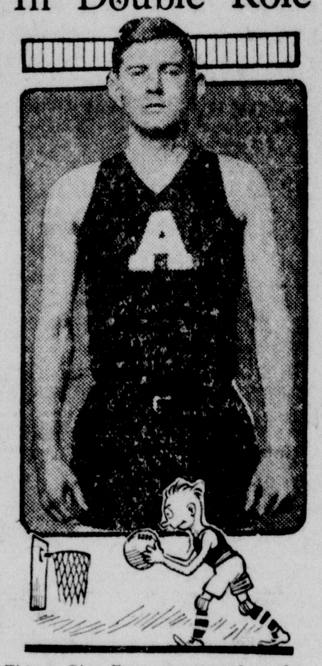
In Double Role



This is Glen Rose, star guard on the University of Arkansas basketball team. He's a sophomore and shines on the gridiron, too. Around the Razorback campus they call him "Big Glen," and opine he's headed for the top-notch class. He's the tallest fellow ever to play on an Arkansas University cage outfit, standing six feet, five. He weighs 190 pounds and is fast for a big man.

Comparisons are odious, but the following may give an insight on the strength of other college teams of Missouri. Last night, William Jewell swamped Tarkio, and Culver-Stockton won from Kirksville. The local Bearcats won from the Tarks, but lost to Kirksville.

Culver-Stockton and Jewell should both have strong teams.

Liberty, Mo., Jan. 25.—Showing again the form that made them the 1925 champions, the William Jewell Cardinals swooped down upon the Tarkio Quintet here tonight and smothered the boys from up-state under a 32-to-8 score. Four freshmen were doing Cardinal duty when the game ended. The score stood at 30 to 3 when "Dad" Bowels began to make his substitutions.
